Angular project on GitHub

As a Tester, push the Angular application to the GitHub repository.

Algorithm:-

Step 1- open the terminal.

Step 2- create the angular project using terminal.

Step 3- Go to to the angular folder.

Step 4- Initialize the local git repository in this folder.

Step 5- See all file in angular folder.

Step 6- Add the all Angular files in Slagging area.

Step 7- Then commit all the process.

Step 8- Create a repository in GitHub and copy the link of this repository.

Step 9- connect this link to the local repository folder.

Step 10- At the last push the file local to remote repository in the GitHub.